

Catholic Schools: Dividends for Life January 31-February 5, 2010

Family Poster and Family Prayer

In a flier, families have been asked to create a family poster representing the theme of Catholic Schools Week and to write a family prayer. Poster is due Jan.26 and prayer card is due Jan.29. All participating families will have a jeans day on Monday, February 1st. Please turn in both to your child's teacher, with your name visible, so we can keep a record

Sunday, January 31 ICS Salutes Our Parish for "Investing" in us

- Liturgy 11am – Mr. Kish
- Open House for all at ICS 12:15pm
- Science Fair in Gym

Monday, Feb, 1 ICS Salutes Our Families for "Investing" in us

- Students creating a family poster wear jeans.
- We thank our parents

Tuesday, Feb. 2 ICS Salutes Our Community for "Investing" in us Feast of the Presentation of the Lord --- All School Mass- Mrs. Meyer's class St. Raymond Collection We honor priests for their service to us. Students wear uniforms with a "vest", could be decorated for an occupation, vocation, or scouts...

Prayer pays off! Each class goes to church for Adoration.

Wednesday, Feb.3 ICS: "Where investments pay off"

- Teachers take time out to treat their students.
- Students who brought a new family to open house wear jeans.

Thursday, Feb.4 ICS Salutes Our Priests for "Investing" in us-

Each grade will work on a service project during the day.

Friday, Feb.5 ICS Salutes Our Students for "Investing" in their own education

- Students wear assigned shirt color and uniform bottoms (K & 7 – red, 1 & 8 – orange, 2 & 6 – yellow, 3 & 5 – green, 4 – blue).
- Trivia in the Afternoon: lower grades (K – 4) 12:40 – 1:40pm – Mrs. Schuster
- snacks – Mrs. Vaughn upper grades (5 – 8)1:45 – 2:45pm – Mr. Kassebaum “